

Variety is the spice of life and helps to sustain it too. By combining a wide variety of exotic fruits and plant extracts, EXO provides you with a complete spectrum of antioxidants critical to a long and healthy life.

The best natural ingredients.

EXO is a unique and perfectly balanced blend of exotic fruits and plant extracts. Some of these fruits and extracts are already well known and well regarded by those interested in health and well-being. These celebrated sources of health include seabuckthorn, mangosteen, and acai, to name a few. But EXO also contains many, many other sources of antioxidants in a rich and tasty blend.

The best are even better together.

Each of these exotic fruits and plant extracts is incredibly good for your health, but they're even better together. Which means that EXO contains a wider range of nutritive qualities than products that offer only one active ingredient. EXO's unique combination of ingredients offers you literally hundreds of naturally occurring antioxidants in the same convenient serving.

Lose free radicals and gain better health.

Antioxidants are essential to living well. They're also essential to preventing cellular damage, thanks to their ability to neutralize free radicals. What does this mean for you? It means that EXO may help your body deal with the added stress of a hectic lifestyle and an environment full of pollutants. In fact, getting rid of free radicals can actually slow down the symptoms of the aging process.*
